On Friday night the citizens of Mound City met and elected officers for the "Harvest Home" association for one year. Mr. Hugh Montgomery was elected President and Mr. Hampshire Secretary. The time set for holding the next "Harvest Home" is on the 24th and 25th of September. Ample provisions will be made to give the fullest and freest exhibition of all the products and stock that will be brought to Mound City on those days. The whole county is invited.

On Tuesday last we were favored with a call from Rev. A. S. Jones, collector for the American Bible Society, who has been in our county since last February. He informs us that since that time up to the first week in August, he has visited 1560 families, and found 220 without a bible; 144 of those families he supplied. Eighteen individuals under his families were also supplied. He has sold 739 copies and donated 100. It will be seen from the above, that about fourteen per cent of the families of Holt county are without a bible.

An error that many farmers fall into every season is in having their wheat threshed too soon after stacking; that is before it has gone through what is popularly called "the sweat." Wheat in that condition is already on the market, and when shipped is very liable to spoil either in transit or in store. It is well suggested that farmers should be careful not to have their wheat threshed until it is dry. Grain buyers hate to have such wheat offered, because the price they can afford to pay is unsatisfactory to the seller, and the raiser can ill afford to sell his wheat at the reduced price. Wheat is low enough this year when in the best condition, and as by leaving it in the stack two or three weeks it will arrive at this stage. It is very poor policy to rush threshing through at the risk of having damp wheat and getting only about half price for it. -Ex.

The best ice cream in the city at Lympus & Bartram's, second door north of bank.

For sale at cost and carriage, one light mower and one Ball Joint Mower. A good bargain for any one who wants to buy a No. 1 mower.

ANDERSON & CUMMINS.

T. O. Felix, of New Point, left on Tuesday for an extended visit to relatives and friends in the Missouri State Tasso says that he will be back in time to cast his maiden vote for Blaine and Logan.

Mr. J. J. Buchanan has purchased a half interest in the Mound City News, and assumes editorial charge of the same this week. The News will hereafter be enlisted in the cause of Republicanism, and we welcome the News as a Republican journal. Mr. Buchanan will stick it up to the Bourbons of Upper Holt in red hot style.

As will be seen elsewhere in this issue, Mr. Lewis L. Moore is a candidate for the office of sheriff subject to the Republican nominating convention. Mr. Moore is a young man of sterling qualities, perfectly familiar with the duties of the office and every way qualified for the position. Should he receive the nomination, the people can rest assured he will in every way merit their support.

The following number of hogs with their average weights were sold to our shippers last week: Gelyin & Cryder, 225 head, 308 pounds; Maurer & Peterson, 540 head, 240 pounds; Rufus Kyle, 260 head, 250 pounds; P. M. Paschal, 210 head, 240 pounds; The above were sold to Gelyin & Cryder. Brown Bros. bought five car loads from Wm. Graves and Frank Grigsby, which averaged 260 pounds. -Maitland Independent.

Farmers are advised by St. Louis wheat buyers not to market their wheat in damp condition, but stack it and let it go through the sweating process, as under the mulling (roller process) damp or tough wheat cannot be used. Wheat sent to market in a damp state can not be sold except at a sacrifice, as neither millers nor shippers can use it, while good dry wheat will always sell at a fair price. Our farmers should make a note of this. Damp or tough wheat, no matter how good the grain, will not bring within 10 or 15 cents as high a price as the same grain when dry.

The following is said to be an infallible cure for cholera: "Take four ounces of ground ginger, two ounces black antimony, two ounces flour of sulphur, four ounces sulphate of iron and two ounces of red pepper. Put one tea spoonful of this mixture in soft food of some kind, for a dozen fowls at the morning feed." Beside this I give my chickens what is called Douglas mixture which is made of a half pound sulphate of iron one ounce of sulphuric acid; stir in two gallons of water. The sulphate of iron should first be placed in a quart of hot water and be allowed to stand twenty-four hours and then strained through a cloth. This should be poured on the sulphuric acid, which should be placed in a jar. Place a big spoonful of the mixture in a quart of water, and allow it to stand constantly in an iron skillet, where the chickens can have access to it. -Ex.

REPUBLICAN RATIFICATION AT MOUND CITY, MO.

The Republicans turned out in full force at Mound City last Friday and increased the membership of the Blaine and Logan club to 225.

Prof. O. C. Hill opened up the meeting with a roasting speech for Blaine and Logan and the protective industries of the Nation. His speech was well received by an audience of over 300 people and nothing but compliments were heard on every hand at the masterly manner in which he demonstrated the absolute necessity of the Republican party remaining in charge of the general government. No laboring man in this country that has a small home, a wife and little ones to support can afford to cast his vote for the Democratic candidates for president and vice-president, with a platform whose principles are plainly for Free Trade and pauper labor.

Mr. John C. Fremont, (colored) of Cherokee, Iowa, made an excellent address of twenty minutes in which he told some hard facts about Democratic treatment in the South.

The Mound City band furnished the music for the occasion. It was understood that no effort would be made at enthusiasm, owing to the unfortunate and unexpected death of Mr. I. N. Servaten one of the G. A. R. comrades whose funeral was in progress at the time of the meeting.

Mr. Chas. Corsaut was elected president of the club and E. A. Welty Sec. The boys are in good shape for work and will doubtless do all they can to carry a triumphant banner for Blaine and Logan.

At night a large audience of ladies and gentlemen at the Opera Hall assembled to hear the lecture of Mr. John C. Fremont on "Klu-klux in the South." His lecture was well received and created no little merriment and favorable comment.

The meeting was a very successful one, and all who attended expressed a conviction that the National ticket would be carried by a larger majority than ever before.

HOW DEATH FEELS.

About three weeks ago the Gazette published an account of the supposed death of Judge Wm. Pointer, at his farm residence near Oregon, Holt county, and his resuscitation after his body had been placed on a cooling board and while one of the attendants was straightening out his feet, which had been fearfully drawn and contorted by pain.

Yesterday Judge Pointer was in the city, the guest of his old friend Mr. T. H. Burns, and he was as lively a corpse as one would care to see. When asked how death felt, for he was apparently dead for nearly an hour, he replied that so far as his experience went it was simply a blank. His mind went to sleep. He did not experience either pleasure or pain, and he knew nothing of what was going on. After this lapse into oblivion he was awakened by the excruciating pain inflicted by the party in the attempt to straighten out his feet.

As might be expected, Judge Pointer, who is a man of intelligence, is very thankful for his deliverance from the grave. He is now sixty-five years of age and looks as though he was good for at least another score. -St. Joseph Gazette, 9th inst.

THE "BLACK DIAMOND."

"Black Diamonds," by the Jennie Holman combination, on Friday evening, was the best entertainment yet given by this company. Jennie Holman, as Diana Dyehink, excelled all her former efforts, while Otto H. Krause, as Banty Bob, brought down the house at every appearance. Ed. G. Browne, as Mark O'Dare, was perfection itself, while Harry Langdon, as Nathan Dyford, played the villain's part as well as it can be done. In every play given by this company, they have fully sustained the good reputation they have brought with them from former engagements, and any judge of dramatic ability can not fail to agree with us in saying that this company embraces some of the best talent that has visited our city. Jennie Holman, though very young, possesses the faculty of impersonating any character to perfection, and last night if the character had been written for her she could not have represented it better. It is merely multiplying words to say more of this company. They are as good as the best and theatre goers will regret it if they fail to hear "The Little Detective" to-night, which is said to be the best play on their list. Jennie Holman will play five different characters in this play, and also sings two comic songs, which, when sung in her beautiful style will be sure to interest and entertain you.

The above we clip from the Hastings, Nebraska, Daily Gazette-Journal. This popular combination commences a week's engagement in this city, Monday, August 25th.

A SONG

THAT NEVER GROWS OLD.

We read of a French Emperor who kept a book to record the noble deeds and heroic actions of his subjects, but alas, he found it too small to contain all the noble sacrifices and chivalric deeds worthy of record. So we find this space inadequate to refer to the smallest fraction of the marvellous and really astounding bargains we have for an appreciative public—bargains only to be seen to strike the masses at once like a regular whirlwind of popular favor.

WE NEVER TIRE

of selling goods cheap, because we inspire the masses; we benefit them; we encourage hope for their betterment; we build up a lofty enthusiasm by pointing the way from the low grounds of adversity to the strong heights of prosperity. All along are strewn the wrecks of once bright promises. It is paved with the bones of illustrious victims. You ask us what has done all this? How can you sell cheaper than your neighbors? How has your drawer been filled with the potent metal that will buy the world, when so many start with such lofty pretensions and are soon, not even a memory. We answer, by having at the Fountain Head—with the Dollar of our Daddies, when, like the present demoralization, over production is bearing its fruits. Years of sleepless energy, heroic work, and triumphant victories have left no impress that can be tortured into a dampened enthusiasm or broken resolution. Never has our stock of turning implements been so ruinously low. Our prices are low and we are glad to sell at, and consider it a favor for you to call for them. It becomes the duty of every farmer to stop and inquire if there be not some easier, quicker road to success in life than the one over which they are not tramping—whether there is not a way to buy lower and save the surplus, and at the same time supply the wants of the farmer. There are no persons so well posted and discreet in purchasing who cannot learn something, and to such, as well as others, we submit this address. We handle a full line of the latest improved Agricultural Implements, Cultivators, Sulky Plows, Corn Drills, Reapers, Mowers, Stoves, Tinware, Hardware, Spouting and everything to be found in a first-class hardware and implement house. Give us a call and be convinced that we will sell as cheap as any house in Northwest Mo.
